PROFESSIONAL

CAREER CENTER

The Citadel Career Center provides the education and resources that enable students to make informed decisions regarding their career goals.

The first step in this process is providing a career assessment to incoming students, to aid in the selection of a major and to identify career paths for exploration. Students are advised to follow a four-year career planning timeline, enabling them to take advantage of many resources and opportunities.

The Career Center provides training and assistance in career research and strategy, employer and city research, networking, career planning, résumé construction, interview preparation, and decision making.

It is important for students to engage in the four-year career planning process as early and as thoroughly as possible. For information on resources, please visit: www.citadel.edu/career

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

2020-2021

Student support programs, services, and activities offered by The Citadel complement and support students' academic development by

- promoting discipline, responsibility, character development, and self-confidence;
- equipping students with the skills necessary for academic success;
- developing leadership skills;
- enhancing moral and spiritual development;
- increasing cultural awareness and the appreciation of diversity;
- encouraging students to become responsible professionals in their chosen fields; and
- providing activities that promote personal health and physical fitness.

The intent of student support programs is to encourage development and integration of personal values and habits that will remain with one for life.

ACADEMIC

THE STUDENT SUCCESS CENTER

The Student Success Center (SSC) is located on the first floor of Thompson Hall. The SSC provides academic support to all Citadel students, both undergraduate and graduate, through the following programs:

- Academic Coaching
- Athletic Academic Services
- Mathematics Lab
- Services for Students with Disabilities
- Subject-Area Tutorials Program
- Supplemental Instruction Program (SI)
- Writing Lab

Individual and group subject-area tutorials are available in most academic areas, including but not limited to mathematics, science, foreign language, history, psychology, and business. Learning strategies tutorials in areas such as study skills, time management, and test-taking skills are also available.

Students may set up an appointment by emailing the SSC at sscenter@citadel.edu, calling (843) 953-5305, or stopping by 117 Thompson Hall.

For further information about the SSC and its programs, please visit our website at www.citadel.edu/ssc.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

Academic Faculty Advisor: Each student is assigned a faculty advisor who provides counsel concerning course selections within particular majors. Students are encouraged to visit their advisors throughout the year, and planning sessions are designated each semester during registration and preregistration.

Company Academic Advisor: Each cadet company has a specially chosen member of the faculty or staff whose responsibility is the academic well-being of all cadets in the company. These advisors work closely with the tactical officer and the cadet chain-of-command to ensure that academic and military requirements are compatible and that cadets take advantage of academic resources available to them. For a current list of Company Academic Advisors, please visit: <http://www.citadel.edu/root/aa-academics/officers-and-advisors>.

PERSONAL

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT AND INTERPERSONAL VIOLENCE PREVENTION AND RESPONSE SERVICES

The Citadel is committed to maintaining a culture of respect and safety; promoting awareness and prevention of sexual harassment, sexual assault, rape, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking through educational programs and enforcement of standards; promoting bystander intervention; and providing response and advocacy services for those who are affected by these issues.

Citadel students who believe they have experienced sexual assault, rape, sexual harassment, dating violence, domestic violence and/or stalking, or have knowledge of another person's experience with any of the above, are encouraged to report the incident(s). Students may report to Ms. Janet Shealy, director of the Campus Advocacy Response and Education (CARE) Program. Students also may report incidents to a Title IX Coordinator, any college official, TACs, Human Affairs members, the Infirmary, The Citadel Police, or law enforcement in the jurisdiction of the incident.

Ms. Janet Shealy, Director (843) 953-7277

FITNESS

In addition to individual counseling from the Counseling Center and medical support from the Murray Infirmary, the Department of Health and Human Performance in Deas Hall offers opportunities and facilities to enhance physical fitness for students, faculty, and staff. For cadets, the required physical activity program provides an exemplary environment and experiences which contribute to an improved quality of life. The program offers basic instruction in adult and lifetime physical fitness, healthful living, physical activities, and recreational sports which are of immediate and lasting value.

The Commandant's Physical Effectiveness Program includes assessments in the areas of physical fitness and weight management. Cadets are expected to meet specific standards every semester as a member of the Corps. Remediation programs are designed to enhance and assist all cadets in meeting these requirements.
